

NEWSHEET 28th October 2007

We will remember them

In ideal description of what we will be doing for All Souls Day 2nd November. There will be our usual three masses here, with a chance for you to have your loved ones prayed for by name. Please indicate on the list which Mass you will be attending - 10am, 12 noon or 6.00pm. Each one of our Masses will take place in the Walsingham Chapel.

Our theme of remembrance continues in the evening with our concert by Jean Martyn the internationally renowned musician in a very beautiful and moving performance that will include members of the Royal British Legion and other armed forces, making the traditional act of remembrance as we are cascaded in poppy leaves which will be released as in the Albert Hall. Tickets are available for this from Sylvia and Royson Orme priced at £6, but we are strictly limited to 100 people and if purchased in advance there is a saving as opposed to the ticket price on the door.

Please do come to Saint Luke's to remember your loved ones. Refreshments will be served after the 6pm Mass for those who are staying for the Jean Martyn concert.

Bible Sunday - is the theme of our celebrations today, when we give thanks for the privilege of God's Holy Word. For further details on how to subscribe to Bible Alive please see Margaret Toon.

Saint Luke's Breakfast – is served this Saturday 3rd November. Please make sure you put your name on the list which will help with catering.

CRB Forms – we are hoping next Sunday 4th November to complete all CRB forms for those who help with young people's work. Please make sure you collect a letter from Gill Richardson and bring it with you next week together with your required means of identification.

Parish Christmas Meal – there is still a chance to sign up for this meal at The Apollo Hotel – Ann Babington has the lists and is also happy to accept money in terms of part or full payment.

Our sincere thanks – to all those who helped with our celebration meal yesterday, which was a great success. God bless you all.

Commemorative Gifts – if your name is not on our tea towel, that is because you never filled in one of our gold forms and handed it back. There are some available on the contact table. Please let us have them because it means you are not on our congregational roll.

Still available – our 100% cotton tea towels, bone china mugs and high quality notelets, last few bears. Please see Sylvia Orme or Ros McCarthy.

Coming next week – details of Birmingham Hippodrome's panto production of Alladin with our seats booked for the 8th January.

All Saints Patronal Festival – is this evening starting at 6.00pm. Father Darren has some spaces in his car and if anybody else has any spaces, or needs a lift please
