Today is the 9th May and is the 6th Sunday of Easter. Readings can be found on page 764 of the Sunday Missal and page 644 of the Roman Missal.

The Readings

Jesus came to bring his special gift of peace. Today we hear how our lives can be changed as we truly come to know the peace of Christ.

First Reading: Acts 15: 1-2. 22-29

The apostles bring encouraging words to the new Christian community in Antioch. Living a Christian life is simple, straightforward and challenging.

Second Reading: Apocalypse 21: 10-14. 22-23

John's vision of the new Jerusalem is one of a city illuminated by the radiant glory of God.

Gospel: John 14: 23-29

Jesus presents the gift of peace to his apostles. We are called to accept the gift of peace and to use it to transform our world.

Every person matters!

I don't know about you, but sometimes it's hard to keep track of who is in church on a Sunday. Before you know it, a week or more goes by before you realise someone is missing. We all want to grow this church, both spiritually and in numbers. If you miss the person who normally sits next to you, think about calling them during the week, or speak to a member of the clergy. It is important that we all take responsibility for each other. It is all our jobs.

Every Person Matters – A footnote from the PCC – Following our PCC Meeting on Thursday it was decided that in order to keep the clergy alert to any members of the congregation who are sick or someone you are concerned about small cards will be placed on the contact table for any member of the congregation to complete which should be placed in the box provided. Please don't let someone slip through the net because of our failure to bring them to the notice of the clergy. Sometimes the failure to communicate people's needs leads them to feeling unwanted, and we have a duty of care to everyone. We hope that by putting this in place everyone will have the Please, please respect the silence before Mass both on a Sunday and during the week.

The prayerful silence that we experience here before Mass is envied by other churches. Please don't spoil it – even the smallest whisper can be disturbing. If you do need to talk to someone then please go into the hall and have your conversation there. Talk to God first and to each other after the Mass!!
